PAWS FOR THOUGHT...MAKE A DIFFERENCE

PetSafe® brand is donating hundreds of toys to homeless cats across the UK as part of its Christmas charity campaign, 'Paws for Thought'.

Urging animal lovers up and down the country to get involved, the pet product expert is asking people to nominate their preferred animal shelter or charity via the company's Facebook and Twitter page throughout November and December. Each week a shelter will be chosen by a prize draw and a hamper full of PetSafe toys will be delivered to them before Christmas.

PetSafe brand hopes the campaign will raise the profiles of the shelters and encourage members of the public to find out more about how they can help their local rescue centre.

PetSafe International Marketing Director Angela Critchley, commented: "With around two million homeless cats in the UK it's great to raise awareness of this issue and also make people stop, spare a thought and spread a little happiness at this time of year."

To nominate a shelter of your choice tweet @PetSafeUK or go to www.facebook.com/petsafeuk
