NEW FROLICAT® FOX DEN TOY GETS FELINES IN A FRENZY

Cats love nothing more than a game of chase and now a new toy has launched that will help satisfy all their hunting and catching instincts – while giving pet owners a well-earned rest from playing!

The latest fun addition to the popular FroliCat® range, the new FroliCat® Fox Den Automatic Cat Teaser from PetSafe® Brand is a motion-activated toy that excites cats by teasing them with a realistic fox tail.

The sly fox hides in his den, waiting to shake his fuzzy tail at unexpected cats – the tail pops out, shakes about, then hides again, creating hours of feline excitement.

The toy has a “Play-All-Day” mode for a day full of automatic fun that also allows cat owners to entertain their pets when they are not home. Battery operated, its inbuilt motion sensor automatically shuts off the toy when it’s not in use.

Available now, the FroliCat® Fox Den Automatic Cat Teaser has an RRP of £25.99 and is available via the PetSafe® Brand website and selected retailers.
